General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) Privacy Policy

In accordance with the GDPR, I will keep all client information as hard copies in a secured folder. Your details and emergency contact details are only used in an emergency.

No information will be passed on to a third party for advertising or marketing purposes. No data will be sold or distributed.

If our contract is terminated, you have the right for any data held by me that is no longer relevant to be deleted.

After photos have been uploaded onto the internet (e.g. Facebook and/or my website), they will be deleted from their primary source.

This came into effect on the 25th May 2018.
